HEARING START TIME: 9:00 a.m.
HEARING END TIME: 4:55 a.m.

Date: 02/01/2019 Case No.: S0200DO200901390
Minute Entry – Evidentiary Hearing

Ms. Sacramento presented her position in opposition to an opening hearing.

Ms. Bourke further presented her position in support of an open hearing.

The Court noted that under the authority of Rule 13.A, the Court has the power to exclude the public to promote, among other things, amicable settlement of the issues to protect the best interests of a minor child or to protect the parties from physical or emotional harm.

IT IS ORDERED closing the proceedings from now until further notice.

THE RECORD MAY REFLECT that at 9:24 a.m. that all persons seated in the gallery were escorted out of the courtroom with instructions to remain in the foyer until the bailiff calls them back in at the appropriate time to reconsider the issue. The Court also informed Ms. Housler who was on the phone that she would be called back when she is needed to testify.

THE RECORD MAY FURTHER REFLECT that the parties and counsel remained in the courtroom. The proceedings are closed and subject to being reopened.

The Court expressed its thoughts regarding this case and what is best for this young child.

With respect to the status of the current parenting time schedule and Xander's school status, Ms. Bourke and Mr. Contreras presented their respective positions.

Upon inquiry by the Court, Ms. Sacramento reported on her visits with Xander and relayed that Xander is doing very well.

The Court made reference to Rule 1.B of the Family Law Rules and shared its thoughts regarding Xander. The Court perceives that Xander is doing very good.

The Court referenced Rule 63.A.1 and is going to deny the mental health examination request unless someone can prove to the Court that Xander's life will improve by having the parties participate in a Rule 63 evaluation than counseling with Xander.

IT IS ORDERED deferring Petitioner's request for Respondent to submit to a mental health evaluation.

Ms. Pahl presented argument in response.

The Court proposed that Xander and his parents participate in counseling as deemed appropriate by a mutually agreed upon counselor and continue this hearing for a period of 90 days until the parties have participated in counseling.

Ms. Sacramento responded to the Court's proposal.

Ms. Bourke further presented her position regarding the co-parenting counseling.

The Court addressed the parties regarding its concerns and inclinations.

Ms. Pahl stated that Petitioner wants to move forward with the hearing to present evidence regarding the Rule 63 evaluation request.

Date: 02/01/2019 Case No.: S0200DO200901390
Minute Entry – Evidentiary Hearing

Ms. Bourke objected and presented her position in response to the allegations.

The Court further addressed the parties and counsel.

Upon inquiry by the Court, Ms. Bourke stated that she would be in agreement with the Court's proposal for family counseling and to come back in 90 days after the counseling.

Mr. Contreras further presented his position in response to the Court's proposal.

Further discussion was held regarding the issue of counseling.

At 10:25 a.m., Court went off the record.

At 10:34 a.m., Court reconvened with all parties previously announced again present.

THE RECORD MAY REFLECT that the hearing today remains closed at this time.

Ms. Pahl presented the Petitioner's position regarding his willingness to continue the hearing for ninety days to allow the counseling that the Court has suggested.

Ms. Bourke affirmed her position in agreement.

Discussion was held regarding counselors.

Ms. Bourke requested that people be allowed back into the courtroom and presented argument in support thereof.

Ms. Pahl requested that the hearing remain closed and presented argument in opposition.

Mr. Contreras addressed the Court regarding his objections to opening the hearing.

IT IS ORDERED that the hearing is open to the public at this time (10:41 a.m.).

The Court addressed the people who came back into the courtroom regarding the proceedings.

At 10:46 a.m., the Court went off the record for discussion regarding counselors.

At 10:55 a.m., the Court went back on the record with all parties present.

The Court noted that discussion was held off the record to ascertain possible professionals to assist with the counseling; that counseling is envisioned to be conducted by a master's level or above therapist.

The parties are encouraged to attempt to recommend a counselor to be utilized, however, in the event that the parties are not able to make the agreement by 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, February 7, 2019, the Court will pick out a counselor from a list of counselors provided to the Court by the parties.

Discussion was held regarding scheduling for a date to continue this Evidentiary Hearing.
